THE SUITS AGAINST THE POOLS. Attorney General Cassidy Closes the Case and

Turns it Over to His Successor. The taking of testimony in the common-wealth's suit against the coal and railroad pools closed in Harrisburg on Saturday. The commonwealth asked for the annual reports of each of the defendants as far back as 1882, inclusive, and these were pledged to be produced by counsel. The state also put in evidence the report of the bureau of statistics, prepared under the secretary of internal affairs, and also the reports of the mine inspectors. When this had been done Mr. Causidy tors. When this had been done Mr. Carrioy made formal announcement of the closing of his case, and said: "We have come to the point where we "We have come to the point where we shall not call any more testimony. In view of the fact that my official term will expire of the fact that my official term will expire on the awearing in of my successor on next Tuesday, it is manifest that even were the case closed I would not have the time, or rather the opportunity to argue it. It therefore seems reasonable and proper that we should submit the testimony we have to the incoming attorney general that he may decide whether he will go on and take further testimony aircady presented. I therefore ask the examiners to suspend taking further testimony until they receive notice from the new at orney general."

at orney general. this statement Mr. Cassidy went After this statement Mr. Cassay won-among the lawyers and bade them farewell, and while everybody was in a good humor and harmony prevaited all around, the party separated, and so for the time at least, an end came to the battle of the state officers against

Mother and thaughter.

Daughter-Mamma, Mr. Bank proposed to me last night. Mother-Did you scept him, daughter?

Daughter—Yes, machins.

Mother—Has he any money, daughter.
Daughter—Only $1,500 a year, mainta.

Mother—Well, daughter, handle him carefully till spring. Possibly you can pick up something better during the winter.

The Price of Coal.

I see coal is going up," remarked Brown "Yes, but if you buy some it'll be sure a go down said Smith.
"How do you make that out?"
"Why, it il go in the celtar."

Many value attempts are made to repeat the remarkable success of Benson's Capeline Plaster This splendid remedy is known, sold and used

A Gental Liestorative

Hostetter's Stomsch Bitters are surpliableally a gental restorative. The changes which this great botanic remedy produces in the disordered organization are always ogresably, though surely progressive, never about and violent. On this account it is admirably adapted to persons of delicate constitution and adapted to persons of definate constitution and weak nerves, to whom the powerful mineral drugs are positively injurious. That it into ates those processes which result in the research the tenter of the processes which result in the research that it is the stable ment of healthful vigor is renephenously shown in cases where it is taken to overcome that fruitful cause of debrity, ludigostion, coupled, as it mainly is, with billionsness and constipation. Thereugh digestion, regular execution and abundant secretion, are results which promptly and invariably attend its avaitable use. It is, health, the best protective against malasts, and a next rate disretted janis-22

It is to Your Interest

To bear in mind that one Benson's Capeine Plas-ter's worth a dozen of any other purpus plas-ter. Benson's plasters are a greature medicinal article, endersed and used by the medical pro-fession from Mainsto California. They cure in a few hours atments which no others will even relieve. Cheap and worthless imitations are relieve. Cheap and worthless initiations are sold by dealers who care incre for large profits on cash than they do for the sweets of an approving conscience. However, "capeleine" and of the Capucton, "Capeleine" and "Capeleine" and "Capeleine". These manes are nothing but initial ating variations on the name "tapelne." So e the difference, go to regutable druggists and you will not be deceived. The genuine Bensess his the "These Seals" trademark and the word "Capelne" cut in the centre.
